Civil Action No.: 03-CV-10060-JLT

JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND CONDITIONAL DISMISSAL PERIOD OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO RE-OPEN ACTIONS

On November 24, 2003, following notification by the parties that they have reached an agreement to resolve these cases, the Court entered orders dismissing the above-captioned cases without prejudice to reconsideration and re-opening upon the filing of an appropriate motion within ninety days of the entry of the orders. On March 1, 2004, the Court allowed the parties' joint motion to extend the conditional dismissal period, which is now currently scheduled to expire on April 23, 2004.

Over the past several months, the parties have been involved in ongoing negotiations regarding the settlement agreement and related documents. The parties are now finalizing the agreement and documents. Additional time is needed to complete this process.

The parties, therefore, respectfully request that the Court extend the date by which a party must file a motion to re-open the above-captioned cases and reconsider the Settlement Orders of Dismissal entered by the Court. The parties request that the date for filing any such motion be extended by sixty days, up to and including June 23, 2004.

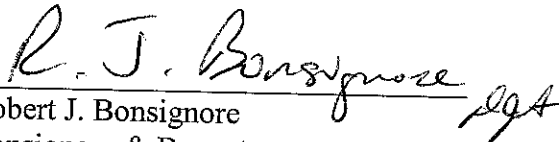

In the event the Court does not grant the parties' motion to extend, the parties jointly move the Court, in the alternative, to reconsider its Settlement Order of Dismissal and to re-open the above-captioned actions to allow for additional time to finalize the settlement.

WHEREFORE, the parties respectfully request that the Court grant their motion to extend the conditional dismissal period up to and including June 23, 2004, or, in the alternative, re-open the above-captioned actions to allow for additional time to finalize the settlement.

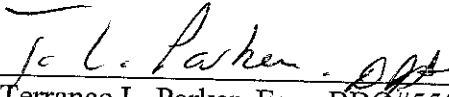

Dated: April 21, 2004
